

We're changing how the world renovates

Perhaps your bathroom space is too crowded for your growing family? Maybe you need an extra bedroom, or you just want to create a family-friendly living area for everyone to enjoy? Whether it's something big or small, the team at Vivarta Design & Solutions are here to help you! So, you can have your dream home without having to move away from the place you know and love.

Use a locally owned and operated renovation company

You will have one point of contact who manages all aspects of your project from planning to completion. Their goal is to create an exciting and stress-free experience by understanding your requirements, delivering a quality service through clear communication to you and the trades and then project managing the build.
